The Winter of Our Discontent...

You great benefactors, sprinkle our society with thankfulness.
W. Shakespeare Timon of Athens, III, 6

The Winter of Our Discontent...

is a partnered dramatic miniature on giving up,
staining, and the search for dignity.
It creates a field between trust and manipulation.

The miniature is based on a fragment of Richard III by Shakespeare with medieval songs – Quen na virgen groriosa, Rosa das rosas, and a prayer Nenbre-sse-te woven into it.

Course

Thawing out (prologue)
Cackling and a howl
A lament and a curse
I'll have her – Step aside
Subterfuge, a fight and humiliation
She looks at me

Its outline was created from October 2009 – February 2010.
